Art. 2

Admission requirements

Applicants to the selection procedure for the conferral of research grants must comply with the admission requirements and eligibility criteria in accordance with art. 1.

Tenured academic staff employed by Universities, astronomical or astrophysical Observatories, public research and experimentation agencies, research institutions as defined in accordance with art. 8, D.P.C.M. no. 593/1993 and subsequent amendments and integrations, the National Agency for new Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Development (ENEA), the Italian Aerospace Agency (ASI), as well as institutions whose graduate scientific degrees are recognised as equivalent to a doctoral degree in accordance with art. 74, para. 4, D.P.R. no. 382/1980 cannot enter this selection procedure.

Applicants must be in possession of admission requirements and eligibility criteria before the application deadline.

Foreign citizens must have been awarded a doctoral degree equivalent to those previously mentioned in accordance with international agreements, as well as in accordance with art. 9, Law no. 148/2002. Equivalence must be certified by competent authorities.

Physical fitness to the job is also required. In accordance with legislation in force the University Administration reserves the right to ask successful candidates to take medical exams.

Applicants are not admitted to the selection procedure, if they are excluded from any active electorate; or have a degree of kinship, up to and including 4th grade, with a professor of the School or the unit where the research project takes place, as well as with the Rector, General Director or a member of the University Board of Governors in accordance with art. 18, para. 1, lett. b) and c), Law no. 240/2010.

Foreign citizens must also meet the following requirements:

- a) to enjoy full rights as citizens in the state of origin or provenance;
- b) except for the Italian citizenship, to meet all other requirements;
- c) to have a fair command of the Italian language.

Anytime and by reasoned decision the University Administration can exclude applicants from the selection procedure because of missing requirements.

Applicants cannot be admitted to this selection procedure, if they have already been awarded research grants by any other institution or agency in accordance with Law no. 240/2010 for a period, which summed up with the duration of the current grant, exceeds 4 years on the whole. If the grant has been awarded during a doctoral programme without grants, that period is not counted.

Furthermore, applicants would not be admitted to this selection procedure, if they hold or have held contracts such as post-doctoral grants or fixed-term Research Fellow contracts with the University of Camerino or any other Italian university in accordance with art. 22 and art. 24, Law no. 240/2010, as well as with other institutions or agencies in accordance with art. 22, para. 1, Law no. 240/2010 for a period exceeding 12 years, even if not continuous, when summed with the contract duration of the current selection announcement. According to legislation in force periods on maternity or sick leave are not counted.

Art. 3

Application and submission deadline

Applications, drafted on ordinary paper, together with relevant documentation for the purposes of the selection procedure, addressed to the Rector, are to be sent by registered mail with advice of delivery to the following address: Piazza Cavour, n. 19/F, 62032 Camerino (MC), or hand-delivered to the University Human Resources Dept., Piazza Cavour 19/F 62032 Camerino (MC) during office hours: Monday to Friday, from 10 a.m. to 12 a.m.

Applications must be submitted within the time limit of 30 days effective from the day following the publication of the selection procedure.

If the submission deadline of the application is a Saturday or a public holiday, the deadline will be postponed to the next working day.

The selection procedure announcement will be published on the University of Camerino website at www.unicam.it (link to Online services), on MIUR website (Ministry of Education, University and Research) at <http://bandi.miur.it> and on the European Union website at <http://ec.europa.eu/euraxess/>.

Applications must be drafted according to Attachment 1, which, according to legislation in force must contain all requested information. Failure to comply with this requirement entails exclusion from the selection.

The University Administration is by no means responsible for missing out communications due to inexact address details provided by the candidate or for failed or late communication of address changes. Moreover, the Administration is not responsible either for inefficiencies of the postal service not due to the Administration itself, or for causes due to a third party, or for unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure, or for failed return of the advice of delivery of registered letters.

In full awareness of potential civil, criminal and administrative liabilities, in the application candidates must declare:

1. surname, name, place and date of birth;
2. citizenship (Italian or one of EU member states);
3. if Italian, their electoral register, specifying the district, or give reasons for not being enrolled, or for having been cancelled, if applicable;
4. to have a clean criminal record and not to have pending lawsuits, if applicable;
5. awarded post-graduate degree, grades, date and awarding University;
6. awarded doctoral degree, date and awarding University;
7. not to have been awarded any other scholarship, fellowship or research grant. Applicants commit themselves to give them up, in case of their being successful in the current selection procedure;
8. to be physically fit to the job;
9. permanent or temporary address and postal code, where all communications about this selection procedure are to be sent;
10. EU citizens must also declare to enjoy full rights as citizens in their state of origin or provenance, or reasons for failing to enjoy them and to have a fair command of the Italian language;
11. to master the foreign language requested by the selection announcement (art. 1);
12. not to have a degree of kinship, up to and including 4th grade, with a professor of the School proposing the recruitment, as well as with the Rector, General Director or a member of the University Board of Governors.

Non-EU applicants must also declare, under their own responsibility, their citizenship and to have a fair command of the Italian language.

Candidates, holding a degree awarded abroad, must also submit a translation in Italian or in English together with a personal declaration that the translation is a true and faithful copy of an original. The Selection Board reserves the right to declare a degree awarded abroad admissible or not, only for the purposes of the selection procedure.

Following the same procedures of the application form submission, the would-be successful candidate, who has been awarded a doctoral degree in a non-EU country, must also submit an official translation, together with the certificate of equivalence of qualification of his/her foreign degree, by the competent Italian diplomatic delegations within 60 days from the approval decree of the selection procedure records, otherwise the right to conclude the contract will fail, as provided for by the legislation in force regulating the matter.

In order to perform the interview, disabled applicants must explicitly request for assistance proper to their disability, if needed, in accordance with Law no. 104/1992.

The following documents must be attached to the application:

1. two copies of a signed curriculum vitae. An electronic copy must also be sent to the following e-mail address laura.lesti@unicam.it, in order to have it published on the University website;
2. all documents and qualifications and related list (degrees, publications, courses etc.) deemed relevant for the purposes of this selection;
3. a copy of a valid identity document;
4. a copy of the tax identification number (national identification number, social security number etc.);
5. copy of the receipt for the payment of € 20,00;
6. Attachment 4: University Code of Ethics. Failure to submit this declaration may be reason for a mandatory removal of the grant winner from the position.

A fee of € 20.00 is to be paid by bank transfer to bank account no. 8285 ABI 06055 CAB 68830 CIN L IBAN IT20L0605568830000000008285, BIC SWIFT BAMAIT3A, made out to: University of Camerino, at Banca delle Marche, Branch Office of Camerino within the deadline for the submission of the application with the following reason for payment: “fee for the participation to the selection procedure for the conferral of n. 1 research grant for the Scientific Disciplinary Sector at the School of “. Failure to comply with this requirement entails the exclusion from the selection.

Evidence of qualifications may also be given by a personal declaration of certification in accordance with art. 46, D.P.R. no. 445/2000 (Attachment 2).

Qualifications deemed to be relevant for the purposes of this selection procedure must be submitted within the deadline for application.

Qualifications and publications can be submitted in plain copy accompanied by a declaration in lieu of affidavit as of Attachment 3, in accordance with art. 47, D.P.R. no. 445/2000, where to state in full awareness that the submitted copies of academic titles and publications are true and faithful copies of the originals (Attachment 3).

If not signed in front of the person entitled to receive them, a photocopy of an identity document must be attached to the aforementioned declarations.

The truthfulness and correctness of the successful candidate's self-certified acts, facts, and personal data will be verified (sample-checked) by the University of Camerino.

Applicant's surname, name and address must be clearly written on the envelope.

It is not allowed to refer to documents or publications already submitted for other selection procedures.

Art. 4

Selection Board and evaluation

The Selection Board is appointed by the Rector and consists of three members, proposed by the School Council, and chosen among qualified academic staff of the research area of interest.

Board members' names and curricula will be published on the University website.

Once the evaluation procedure has come to an end, the Selection Board takes minutes according to a template provided for by the Human Resources Dept.

The selection is based on the assessment of qualifications and an interview.

Assessment of qualifications is made before the interview taking place, according to general criteria as stated below. The Selection Board can allocate up to 100 points to each candidate (60 to qualifications, 40 to the interview). Holding a doctoral degree (national or international) is an asset and can be evaluated up to 25 points.

Other qualifications can be evaluated in accordance with the provisions of the abovementioned paragraph. Classification criteria are:

- up to 5 points for a Masters' degree. Grades up to:
 - 107/110 = 0 points
 - 108/110 = 1 point
 - 109/110 = 2 points
 - 110/110 = 3 points

110/110 with honours = 5 points

- up to 20 points for “research products”, i.e. publications as defined by CIVR (Council for the Evaluation of Research), documenting attitude to scientific research;
- up to 5 points for Diplomas of Advanced Studies degrees or other special postgraduate diplomas.
- up to 5 points for duly certified relevant qualifications obtained thanks to contracts, research grants, fellowships awarded by national and international research institutions, where starting date and duration are clearly stated.

Results of qualifications assessment will be published on the University website and bill-posted on the University Notice Board.

Applicants will receive communication of the date of the interview at least 30 days before together with scores obtained in the evaluation of qualifications.

Only candidates totalling at least 30 points out of 60 will be invited to an interview.

Subject to the Selection Board consent and a feasibility check (Attachments 5 and 6), foreign candidates, especially non-EU citizens, may carry out an online interview, by means of a workstation situated in a University Department or a diplomatic quarter, where an appointed member of the academic or diplomatic staff may testify that the interview is being carried out without any external assistance.

Candidates will have to submit a valid identity document to the interview.

In accordance with art. 1 of this selection procedure, during the interview the Selection Board will test applicants' command of a foreign language on topics related to the research grant field.

The research grants will be awarded to the most qualified candidates. Candidates must have totalled at least 30 points out of the 40 allocated for the interview.

If the successful candidates withdraw before the beginning of the research activity, or in case of an early termination of the contract, because of unjustifiable failed beginning of the research activity, the grants can be awarded to applicants coming next in the ranking list of successful candidates.

Grants are conferred under the provisions of a private law contract.

Grants are effective beginning one month after the signing of the contract.

The Scientific Project Head will testify the beginning of the research activity by sending a declaration to the Rector.

Grants will be paid on a monthly basis.

At the end of the procedure the Selection Board expresses an overall evaluation of each candidate and compiles a list of qualified candidates. Minutes are taken and the list of qualified candidates is submitted to the Rector for approval. It comes immediately into effect.

The most deserving candidates will receive written communication of being awarded the research grant. The winners of the selection procedure will be invited to sign a contract, under penalty of cancellation, within the time-limit of 15 days upon reception of the aforesaid communication.

Within six months from the end of the selection procedure, candidates can ask back their publications at their own expenses. Once the allowed period will have expired, the University will be by no means responsible for the aforesaid publications.

Art. 5

Prohibition of accumulation, incompatibility, leave, interruptions

Grant holders cannot be awarded any other kind of grants, while under this contract, except for those awarded by national or international institutions to integrate this research activity with periods abroad.

Grant holders cannot be, at the same time, enrolled in undergraduate, postgraduate, doctoral courses with grant, medical school courses in Italy or abroad.

Grant holders can be engaged in teaching and be in charge of specific courses and/or teaching modules.

The Department or School, where grant holders are working, is responsible for the profitable performance of grant holders research activity, that is why teaching cannot exceed 60 hours.

Compatible with the assigned research activity and subject to a written authorisation by his/her tutor, heard the Director of the School, grant holders can take part to researches and consulting services commissioned to the University by third parties. They have the right to a share of paid out provisions in accordance with the legislation into force regulating the matter.

Research activity and grants can be interrupted for maternity or sick leave, provided that the length of the research activity is not reduced because of the abovementioned interruptions.

Up to thirty days leave is not considered an interruption and lost time must not be made up.

Grant holders, employed by a public body or agency, must be given unpaid leave for a period equivalent to the duration of the research grant.

Art. 6

Rights and duties of grant holders

Grant holders participate in research activities of the School research programmes and may collaborate with students on research for dissertations or doctoral theses. Grant holders are entitled, for the purposes of carrying out their research activities, to use University structures and resources and to make use of the services provided for researchers, in accordance with the School regulations in force.

The research activity may partially take place in structures or institutions external to the School, subject to an authorisation by the School Council itself.

The University encourages mobility and study periods abroad. If such is the case grant holders are entitled to reimbursement for travel and accommodation expenses as provided by an appropriate University Internal Regulation.

Grant holders are obliged to submit a detailed annual written report to the School Council covering the research activities carried out and results achieved together with an opinion from the Scientific Project Head.

Grant holders' contracts may be terminated, in case:

- a. the research activity is unjustifiably postponed;
- b. the research activity is unjustifiably suspended for more than 10 days;
- c. a violation of the incompatibility regime is performed;
- d. a negative evaluation on the research activity by the structure where the grant holder is working is given.

Delays and interruptions can be justified just in case of duly attested serious illness or force majeure.

Maternity leave is regulated by the Decree of the Ministry of Labor and Social Security of 27 July 2007, published in the Italian Official Journal no. 247 of 23 October 2007 and, matters regarding sick leave are regulated by art. 1, para. 788, Law no. 296/2006 and subsequent modifications.

During the period of obligatory maternity leave, the maternity subsidy paid by INPS in accordance with art. 5 of the abovementioned decree of 27 July 2007 shall be supplemented by the University to match the entire amount of the remuneration due to the research grant holder.

Grant holders may withdraw from the contract upon thirty days written notice.

Grant holders undertake to comply with the provisions of the Code of Ethics issued by this University with Rector's decree no. 16 of 2 March 2015.

Art. 7

Scientific Project Leader

The Scientific Project Leader is a full-tenured professor or a researcher, under whose guidance the research activity is carried out, as established by the research grant.

Art. 8

Contractual arrangement

The winner of the selection procedure is invited to stipulate a private law contract usually effective from the beginning of the following month. As described, the contract does not in any way imply academic staff permanent employment and does not count towards tenure track positions at Italian Universities.

Upon termination of the contract, grant holders will have to submit a report on their research activity.

Art. 9

Fiscal and social security dispositions

Research grants referred to in this Regulation are subject to the fiscal provisions contained in art. 4, Law no. 476/1984 and subsequent amendments and integrations, and to the social security provisions contained in art. 2, para. 26, Law no. 335/1995 and subsequent amendments and integrations.

Art. 10

Processing of personal data

In accordance with D.Lgs. no. 196/2003 all personal data, supplied by candidates will be exclusively processed for the purposes relevant to the current selection procedure for the conferral of the research grants and for recruitment procedures.
